Anthracite Coal Miners Given $85,000,000 Annual Wage Increase

ONE KILLED, MANY HURT, IN WRECK

Back Pay Award Is $18,000,000 To 175,000 Miners

President Wilson Today Approved Majority Commission Report---Wage Increases Do Not Warrant Increase In Retail Price of Coal, Declares Report

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30.—President Wilson today approved the majority report of the anthracite coal commission increasing the wages of contract miners 20 per cent over present rates.

Miners employed as company men are given an increase of 17 per cent and the same amount is given consideration miners and miners' laborers and monthly men.

Fix Minimum Wage

The findings, the report said, would fix a minimum rate of 52 1-2 cents per hour for the lower paid men in the anthracite industry.

Officials of the anthracite commission said the joint wage scale committee of miners and operators had already been called to meet Wednesday or Thursday to consider application of the award. They characterized the meeting of miners at Wilkesbarre, Pa., last night, as an insurgent gathering without authority to commit the miners to rejection.

The president struck out of the report a provision fix ing the terms of retroactive payments under the award which he said was outside the commission's jurisdiction. Thomas Kennedy, chairman of the miner scale committee, had protested this feature of the award he said.

Anthracite mine workers will receive about $18,000,000 in back pay under the retroactive feature of the award which makes it effective April 1, 1920, and the total increase awarded to the 175,000 miners will average, the commission said, "at least $85,000,000" annually.

"No Increase Jutified"

The majority report declared that the award "offers no justification for any advance in the retail price of coal, but on the other hand, is consistent with a decline in prices." Any sharp advance in retail prices the report added "would not be charged to the operators, the miners or the award

The minority report, signed by Commissioner Ferry, while departing from the majority's conclusions, says that officers of the United mine workers "will of course accept and carry out this majority award with the utmost good faith

"While the adjudication of any dispute necessarily results in some

OHIO GUARDS RULE IN WEST VIRGINIA CITY

WILLIAMSON, W. Va., Aug 30—Federal soldiers today took up their stations in the Mingo county strike region, headquarters having been established here yesterday by Colonel Burkhardt, who commanded the troops from Camp Sherman, Ohio. Preparations were at the same time made to withdraw the state constabulary, who have been on duty the greater part of the time since the miners struck for recognition of the union.

Details of the troops disposition were not made public, but it was understood that Colonel Burkhardt has under his command a sufficient number of officers and men to completely patrol the entire region including Pike county, across the Tug river in Kentucky, where Kentucky national guardsmen have been stationed.

Reports received by coal operators here were that a number of mines were in operation and preparations were being made to reopen others which have been closed since the strike was called

PRESIDENTIAL FUND QUIZ IS OPENED TODAY

Senatorial Committee Reopens Quiz at Chicago — Probe $15,000,000 Fund

CHICAGO, Aug. 30—The Republican campaign for 1920 will be carried on at a total expenditure of $5,000,000, according to testimony given here today before the senate committee investigating campaign funds. The statement was made by Will Hays, chairman of the National Republican committee, but he explained that $1,100,000 of the total had been expended by the organization which went out of the office with the end of the Republican national convention.

Mr. Hays emphasized that the present national committee had a budget of approximately $3,000,000 and that $1,000,000 of the total expected to pass through the committee's treasury would be allocated back to the states for strictly state purposes.

The testimony was in the nature of a reply to charges made by Governor Cox, Democratic presidential nominee, that the Republican campaign fund would total $15,000,000. Mr. Hays denied this charge and also denied positively that any "big money interests" had underwritten the Republican expenses

Ten Victims of Green Line Rear-On Collision Last Night Taken to Memorial Hospital

One of Three Women May Be Fatally Injured---Fire Department Unable to Combat Fire Which Consumes Both Cars---Many of 150 Passengers on Both Cars Cut by Flying Glass --- Accident Occurred Between Elyria and Oberlin--Many Oberlin Residents In Wreck

One man was killed and from fifteen to twenty people injured last night when the 7 o'clock west bound limited car on the Cleveland Southwestern street car line crashed into a local car that was ahead of it, at Stop 91, between this city and Oberlin. The accident took place where a short curve prevented a clear look ahead.

Immediately following the crash the cars were set fire by contact with a high tension wire, and the work of rescuing the dead and injured had to be performed quickly. The fire started from short circuited wires.

All Ambulances Called

News of the accident was telephoned to this city, and ambulances were at once dispatched to the scene. The Elyria fire department was also appealed to and sent out the chemical wagon from No. 1 station.

Passing motorists lent their aid at the work of rescue, and it is known that they took some of the less severely injured to their homes.

Folden Sprunk, 45, of Florence, midway between Oberlin and Norwalk, a coal passer at Green Line power plant, was instantly killed. His body was brought to the Jenkins undertaking parlors.

List of Injured:

Nine persons were taken to Memorial hospital, as follows:

Mrs. Thomas White, 48, South Main street, Oberlin, fractured skull, serious, but physicians believe she will recover.

Andrew Harssma, 21, Williard, Ohio, injured limbs and bruises.

Mrs. Andrew Harssma, 20, compound fracture of the leg, cuts about the face and body.

Mrs. Andrew Durall, 40, 95 Vine street, Oberlin, cut and bruised.

Elizabeth Durall, 12, Oberlin, severe contusions.

Lucile Durall, 8 months, bruised.

Avon Durall, 15, cut and bruised.

Phil L. Linns, 32, Ripley, O., abrasions.

William Miller, 18, Stop 4, Lake avenue, Elyria, fractured leg.

Carl Bates, 557 Broad street, Elyria, face and legs cut.

Peter Blazo, 30, Ridgeville, motorman of the limited, bruised limbs.

The efforts of the fire departments to subdue the fire on the cars was unavailing, and both of them were destroyed.

Attracts Big Crowd

As soon as word was received here of the accident, hundreds of people from this city, rushed to the scene by automobile. Machines were parked for nearly a mile from the wreck in almost a continuous line.

Superintendent John Nestor, of the street car line was quickly on the scene. When questioned as to the cause of the accident, both last night and this morning, he said that he had not been able to determine as yet. One of the car crew of the local told him last night that they had had trouble with the car, and had had to stop. Before the conductor had time to get back far enough the limited came up and crashed into the local. The force of the impact drove the limited about ten feet into the local, telescoping it.

Passengers Thrown In Heap

A passenger on the car described the scene that followed as heart rendering. Every person in the car was thrown from their seats, and men, women and children screamed and shouted. Those who were uninjured at once set about the work of rescue, and as fast as they were taken from the car they were taken to a place of safety and laid by the roadside from whence they were carried away by the ambulances.

The loss to the railway is heavy. Superintendent Nestor stated that one car was valued at $18,000 and the other at $20,000. He believes that there will be some salvage, but the complete damage can not be estimated until the machinery of the cars are examined.

Urges People to Get Back to Simple Faith

"We need to get back to the simple faith of our Pilgrim Fathers in regard to honesty and morality. We are not deeply enough grounded in these fundamentals" Such was Dr. Sockman's message at last night's union services. He took for his text "Grow in Grace" and said in part: "This growth is the natural law of development, whether it is applied to a human life or a nation. The toddling child has to think in order to walk but as he grow to manhood he gradually becomes so graceful in the art of walking accelerates his thinking faculties The early disciples were uncouth and awkward at first but through the years of discipline they took on Christian grace. So it is with every convert. Growth in grace must necessarily follow the new birth and it is the pastor's duty to give this training.

Lincoln found us an awkward nation and through his discipline the north and south learned to walk together. Our nation has now reached a state of adolescence and our future growth in grace depends upon our getting a firmer grip on the fundamentals of honesty and purity."

Dr. Sockman is pastor of the Madison avenue Methodist church of New York City. He was greeted here by a large assembly.

VACATIONING WITH FILM STARS

May Allison.

May Allison, the pretty blond Metro star, has been working so hard on pictures that she has not had a real vacation yet, but she gets an afternoon or a week-end off occasionally and then she spends all of her leisure at her new home in Beverly Hills, California. Flowers are her favorite hobby and the grounds of her new home boast of many kinds of blooms. In fact almost every variety that Southern California boasts of may be found on Miss Allison's estate. This picture of the mistress of the manor herself was taken on one of her afternoons off just after she had picked all of the brilliant poppies she could carry.

NEWS NOTES FROM MOVIELAND

The ball has started rolling and we wonder if there will be one mail delivery which will not bring pictures or press agent yarns of picture actors and actresses walking, talking or shaking hands with one of our presidential candidates. Al Jolson as president of the Harding and Coolidge Theatrical League led several of his followers and members of the league down to Marion O., the other day, where the stars met Senator Harding on his famous front porch.

One of the first to be introduced to the Senator and the crowd which thronged over his lawn was "the handsome devil," Eugene O'Brien. And here are the very words of the handsome hero, girls. Are you all thrills?

Smiling his crooked little smile, he said: "I am delighted to be presented to Mr. and Mrs. Harding and I hope—on the screen—to be presented again at the White House."

Texas Guinan and Zeena Keefe were there also, but the ladies all looked at Eugene.

Senator Harding shaking hands with Eugene O'Brien.

I HAVE HEARD THAT—

Maurice Tourneur is filming "The Last of the Mohicans."

Madge Kennedy will leave motion pictures for the stage—temporarily.

Pearl White will star in Bernstein's play, "The Thief," for Fox.

Owen Moore was hurt in airplane accident near London.

Thomas H. Ince is bidding in New York's beauty market for potential stars.

"Earthbound" is making a hit.

It is easier to write a scenario than sell one.

Madelaine Traverse's first picture as the head of her own company will be "The Stain of Innocence."

Genevieve Berte, Franklyn Farnum's leading lady, is the most expert woman rider in pictures.

HIS DOMESTIC HOBBY

It is a well-known fact that all motion picture actors are great collectors. Will Rogers makes a specialty of ropes, Irene Rich horseshoes, Helene Chadwick, Harrison Fisher paintings—and so on.

One of the stock questions of interviewers when talking to picture people is "What's your particular hobby?"

Nick Cogley, wellknown character actor, who plays with Will Rogers in "The Guile of Woman," is no exception to the general rule. He is not satisfied with one thing, however—he collects scores of things. Nails, dried fish bait, lead pencils, bits of string, caps—all these and more are on his list, he told an inquiring interviewer. And why? Because, he explained sadly, those are only a few of the things his two youngsters leave around the house. And he promised his wife he'd "pick up" after them.

TEARLE IS "ACTIVE"

Conway Tearle, according to the press agent's announcement, has been taken on by Jack Dempsey as a sparring partner at the champion's New York training quarters. Conway is playing the leading role in an R. A. Walsh production fo Mayflower, but manages to steal away twice a week for a bout with Jack. In the old days, while in England, Tearle was a professional boxer, but until recently he has kept this fact a dark secret.

AMERICAN

"Right of Way"

As the central figure in the motion picture production of Sir Gilbert Packer's "The Right of Way," showing for the first time at the American theatre last evening, Bert Lytell scored what was easily the most signal dramatic achievement of his long and enviaibe career.

An unusual part, that of Charley Steele, the dashing young attorney in Montreal—cynical, dissolute, undeniabley winning, yet astoundingly supercilious. That Mr. Lytell should have portrayed it adequately would have been enough; that he did it splendidly means he is to be ranked among the foremost of our real stars of the screen.

STRAND

"Little Wanderer"

Shirley Mason, the charming young Fox star scored heavily again here last night at the Strand theatre—and that's no surprise. She appeared as the forlorn little heroine of "The Little Wanderer," by Denison Clift, and was more fascinating than ever—if this were possible.

Miss Mason, in the title role, appears as an ill-treated drudge, as a boy tramp—in disguise—as a waitress, as a rich girl's hired companion and finally as the happ. sweetheart of her rich employer's brother; and in each phase of her experience she is equally captivating. Refined humor and delicious romance mark the tale from start to finish. Raymond McKee is capital as the young lover. The direction is by Howard M. Mitchell.

COLONIAL

"Jes Call Me Jim"

"The story made my wife cry when she read it and when I saw it was that good I said 'Gosh! If it's so good it makes her cry I guess it's good enough for me to act,' so that's how we happened to put on 'Jes' Call Me Jim.' This here 'Jim' is a shore enough fellow. I know just how 'Jim' feels lots of times. For instance when he goes into that millinery shop to select a hat for his Maw. I shore pity Jim when he has to do that. There's a poor old guy that invented something and been cheated out of it and this here Jim helps the milliner get him out of the poor house. It's a doggone good story and if you don't believe it ask my wife because she selected it for me."

This is what Will Rogers says about his new Goldwin picture, 'Jes' Call Me Jim," which comes to the Colonial theatre for four days commencing Wednesday. The story is taken from J. G. Holland's "Seven Oaks."

Colonial Wednesday

She loved him—and he didn't know it. He was so bashful that the very thought would have made him blush. But when the day came—the day she learned the bigness of his heart and the pure gold of his nature—but see the picture!

IS OFFICER FAY'S HUSBAND, FIANCE, OR JUST FRIEND?

Fay Bainter.

When Fay Bainter, the popular actress, returned from Europe a few days ago, Lieut. Com. Venable, U. S. N., turned the U. S. destroyer Ingraham into an unofficial escort to her as the Olympic, on which the actress was a passenger, steamed up New York harbor. He further broke the rules by boarding the Olympic before it docked without permission from the officer of the port. "They are married," said friends of the couple. "We are engaged," said Venable. "We are only good friends," said Miss Bainter.

THOUSANDS OUT FOR STATE FAIR OPENING

Ladies Free Day Opens 70th Annual Event—Big Exhibit And Many Prizes

COLUMBUS, Aug. 30.—Beneath a grey sky that presaged rain, Ohio's seventieth state fair, opened here at 7 o'clock this morning with everything in readiness for the record crowds that are expected.

Workmen spent all yesterday putting the finishing touches on the monster exposition; getting the hundreds of exhibits in shape, and putting the grounds and buildings in spic and span order.

Almost without exception, everything is bigger than before.

There is more live stock outside of building, several acres more of machinery, more exhibitors in the auto show, vastly more race horses and better cards than ever and more amusements.

The night horse show and hippodrome starting at 7 p. m. in the coliseum, and the pageant of children at the same time in front of the grand stand at the race track are the two outstanding events each day.

Today's is women's free day and tomorrow presidential day. Governor Cox; Franklin D. Roosevelt, his running mate, and Dr. A. S. Watkins, standard bearer of the prohibition party, are to speak in the coliseum shortly after lunch.

The 2:15 pace tomorrow will have to be given in two sections, because of the great number of entries; there are 80. In all there are 356 race entries.

Premium awards this year aggregate $115,000 against $85,000 last year. Secretries of agriculture from some other states have sent word they will attend.

Goes After Melons; Returns With Wife, Collects $5 Wager

LORAIN, Aug. 30.—William Steris, 205 West Erie avenue, won a $5 wager Saturday afternoon.

And that's not all Steris won.

He won a wife, also.

Steris, who is one of the proprietors of the Park Cigar company, W. Erie avenue, was sent to a fruit store at 11th street and Broadway for some watermelons by the other partner in the business.

The second partner could not understand Steris' delay.

When Steris returned to the store he not only had the watermelons, but he also had with him a girl, whom he introduced as his wife.

It all happened when Steris stopped into a restaurant near 10th street to have a bite to eat.

Another man eating in the same restaurant made a bet of $5 that Steris would not marry a certain girl.

Steris accepted and in an hour's time was back from Elyria with the certified papers under one arm and the girl clinging tightly to the other.

The girl, Harriet Bloom, Wilkesbarre, Pa., has been in Lorain but three weeks, and had never met Steris until he approached her on the marriage subject.

They will reside at 205 West Erie avenue.

POWER, sturdiness and dependability have been qualities of Buick Valve-in-Head Motor Cars from the time that the name Buick first became linked with the automobile industry. Today, in equal measure as in the past, the Buick Motor Company is dedicated to a continuance of the policy that has caused the Buick car to occupy the position it holds in the public mind.

To all that the name Buick has meant in twenty years of automobile history, the new Nineteen Twenty One Buick brings that grace of movement, that refinement of every line and feature, that sheer beauty of design which inspire a pride of ownership in a fine motor car.

The new Buick line comprises seven models, one for every possible demand. Each has the famed Buick Valve-in-Head Motor, as rugged and powerful as ever, yet refined into a mechanism of unusual quietness.

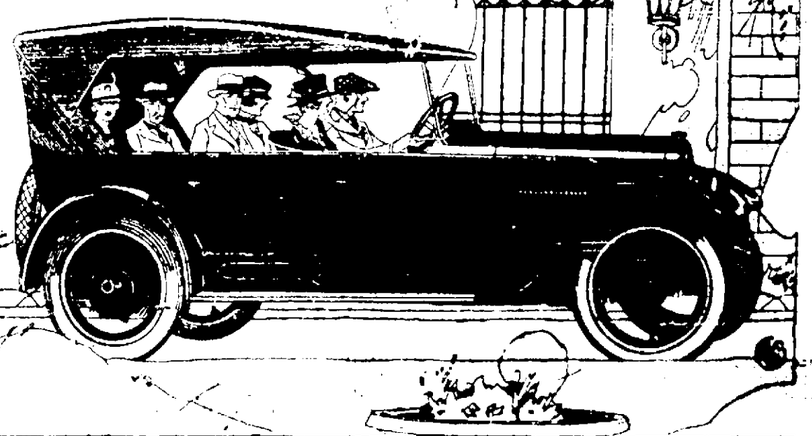

The improved radiator, hood and cowl lines give a finished touch of trimness to the body, yet without any sacrifice of Buick individuality.

A more resilient spring suspension gives these new Buick models a riding comfort as delightful as their exterior appearance is pleasing.

Each of the seven models has its own value particularly adapted to a distinct class of service. All possess those inherent Buick qualities that assure the owner the uninterrupted use of his investment.

ART AND ECONOMY IN HOME BUILDING

No. 58—Design Submitted by the National Builders' Bureau, Spokane, Wash., for The Chronicle-Telegram

—"and after the honeymoon they settled down in this dear little home—"

This is just the sort of home the bride will most enjoy.

It is compact and hence easy and convenient to take care of.

Yet it is large enough to permit of all the entertaining the newlyweds will care to do.

It's a light, cherry, homey little cottage—plenty of windows. The simplicity of the construction not only cuts down cost of construction to a very marked degree, but adds to the beauty and grace and artistic appearance.

A thoughtful study of this houseplan will bring out its highly desirable features and prove that it is, as it is intended to be, "the most home for the least cost."

Ten Victims of Green Line Rear-End Collision Last Night

This is the worst wreck on the Green Line on this division since the Memorial Day wreck in 1906, at the corner of Fifth street and Middle avenue, at which time thirteen people were killed and many wounded.

The local car was in charge of R. Burton, motorman and George Geigeman, conductor. The limited crew was Peter Blazer, motorman, and Peter Hartley, conductor.

Victim's Son Had Premonition

Alfred Sprunk, fireman at the Green Line power plant, said he knew something was going to happen. "I had a dream a few nights ago about water streaked with blood and fire on the mountain side," he said. "I believe in dreams and knew some member of the family was going to get killed. My baby died a year ago last spring."

The Chronicle-Telegram reporter told Sprunk of his father's death when he inquired at Memorial hospital about the list of injured. "That's my father," he said when given the name of the one man killed.

The dead man is survived by the widow and three children, Rolland and Alfred at home and Mrs. Lillian West of Wellington.

SEARCH FOR BRITISH AND U. S. CAPTIVES HELD BY MEXICANS

MEXICO CITY, Aug. 30—Search for American and British subjects kidnapped by Pedro Zamora, the Jalisco bandit, during his raid on the town of Cuale on August 20, has been ordered by the war department. General Rafael Buelna, commander of a force of cavalry pursuing the outlaws, continues to follow their trail, and it is declared the bandits are demoralized and in flight.

Reports received today at the presidential offices from General P. Elias Calles, secretary of war, who has gone to Guadalajara, say the outlaws lost more than 80 killed in the recent fight with government trops at Rancho Divisadarro. All women who were kidnaped by the Zamora band in the raid on the town of Autlan, August 11, have been liberated, it is stated.

To Make Gas Survey

COLUMBUS, Aug. 30—The state public utilities commission has designated its chief engineer L. G. White, to conduct a survey of the gas situation in state and report to the commission. The object of the survey is to determine how much gas each company operating in the state is handling, where the supply is obtained, whether produced or bought of a service company and where it is being sold, whether to industrial or domestic users. Commissioner C. C. Marshall said today that "the present solution seem to be a raise in rates, as higher rates are prohibitive of waste as no other influence can be."

Mrs. Mac Swiney remained with her husband for three hours. She said he was conscious and recognized her, but was unable to speak. Mrs. Mac Swiney was pale and bore evident signs of the terrible strain.

Today was the eighteenth day of the Mayor's hunger strike.

FIRST ELECTRICALLY PROPELLED BATTLESHIP WINS OUT

When the U. S. battleship New Mexico, christened the first electrically propelled naval warrior of the world, was put into commission two years ago steam engine experts shook their heads dubiously. But the report of the vessel's first two years of active service completely vindicates the judgment of those responsible for the ship's unique electric installation. The report substantiates the predictions of W. L. R. Emmet, pioneer in electric ship propulsion, who eleven years ago began an agitation for the electrically driven battleship.

MAN O' WAR CLINCHES CLAIM TO KINGSHIP OF THE TURF

Man o' War winning the $12,500 Travers stakes at Saratoga.

The king of the thoroughbreds. This was the verdict of all horse men and turf followers after Man o' War's recent performance in the Travers stakes at Saratoga. He earned the right to the title of the greatest of all horses of all times. His remarkable race, when he led his two sturdy opponents, Up Set and John P. Grier, to the wire in the $12,500 stake, sets at rest all doubt about his greatness. Man o' War covered the mile and furlong in 1:48 4-5.

WHITE SOX, WRECK IN SPRING, LOOMS AS PENNANT WINNER

With the emphatic reversal of form by the Cleveland club following the death of Ray Chapman, the Chicago White Sox stand out today as the best bet in the American league pennant fight. They top the league by a small margin and are going great guns. Faber, Cicotte, Williams and Kerr are pitching winning ball. The team is batting well and fielding well. If Gleason leads his outfit to the flag this fall he deserves all the credit going to a miracle man. His team was blown to atoms, apparently, in the world's series last fall, when Cincinnati won easily.

The governor so far has not answered, but has indicated that he will send information to support his charges. One senator a member of the committee, said last week that it was possible that Governor Cox would be subpoenaed if he did not come to Chicago voluntarily Possibility of the committee going to Governor Cox so as not to interrupt his campaign itinerary also was mentioned today.

The senatorial investigating committee is composed of Senators Kenyon, chairman, Pomerene, Spencer, Reed and Edge

Senator Edge reached here last night Today's session was the first he had attended since before the convention as he had been in ill health for some time.

Thorough Investigation

Outlining the scope of the inquiry into the presidential campaign, Senator Kenyon announced that the investigation not only would delve into collective of money to finance the campaign, but would seek to reveal whether promises of federal patronage were being exchanged for campaign assistance. He also promised an inquiry into charges that federal office holders were campaigning for Governor Cox, with their expenses paid out of government funds.

Examination of the witnesses already summoned will take at least three days, Mr. Kenyon estimated. Their testimony is expected to reveal many angles which the committee will wish to follow and persons mentioned in their testimony as having knowledge of campaign financial affairs will be subpoenaed committeemen say.

The senate committee has dropped for the present, its investigatinn of pre-convention, state and congressional campaign expeditures but will re-open that phase of its task after completing the inquiry evoked by the charges of Governor Cox and Mr. Roosevelt.

At the outset of the hearing Senator Kenyon introduced the newspaper accounts of Governor Cox's speech at Pittsburg, the committee's telegram to him and the governor's reply

Senator Reed argued that the committee's duty had been earlier set as "to find every dollar" collected and expended by both national organizations He said this course would have been followed whether Governor Cox had made a charge or not.

Without a record vote, the committee received the newspaper account of the Pittsburgh speech was also placed in the record

Will Hays, chairman of the Republican national committee, was then called to the stand

Welcomes Investigation

Will Hays, chairman of the Republican national committee told the senators at the outset of his testimony that the Republican national committee to popularize the giving of money for campaigning purposes by getting small contributions from a great many men and women, thus forever eliminatin any posible opportunity for sinister influences in connection with moey in politics."

He said this plan for raising money grew out of two primary causes·

"The real desire to work a real reform in the elimination of any possible improper obligation," and because, experience in raising funds for war purposes had made popular drives "familiar activity," and it seemed possible to undertake that kind of action by a political organization."

"We particularly hoped that this activity would increase the politi cal interest," he said.

Mr Hays explained that the plan was proposed early in 1919 and that the purpose has been to limit the contributions to a thouand dollars for any one year from any individual, or a thousand dollars before the nomination convention and a thousand after

"We have all tried to adhere to that plan," he said.

Mr Hays described the organization of a general committee of ways and means, acting under the treasurer to carry the work into each state and of a state ways and means committee, with a man as staff chairman and a woman as vice chirman, then to deliver to get a county chairman of ways and means and a woman and vice chairman and then by such process of organization as the localities might in a Red Cross or liberty loan Cross or Liberty Loan campaign.

"The greatest publicity has been given to the movement," he explained because, he said: "Upon the acquainting of the party public of the purpose, depended the political interest."

"As the effort progressed," the witness said, "tentative quotas were fixed by the treasurer's office, all tentative, and rather as a goal—always high, of course, for the particular state to drive for, and changing constantly."

Mr. Hays went into detail as to the methods of organizing the state and discussed arrangements made with both the senatorial and congresional campaign committees of the party to the end that there would be but one money raising organization.

"In that connection," he said, "it was understood between the national committee and these two committees that the collecting organization of the national committee would help raise the money for them, guaranteeing to them the amounts which they thought would be necessary for the congressional and senatorial campaigns."

How Fund Is Distributed

"The campaign budget or estimate was worked out beginning as of July 1, of a total amount which would be needed forf the actual campaign and this was $3,079,037 20," he said.

Of this total $255,100 was apportioned to the speakers' bureau. Headquarters expenses was set at $750,824 for Washington, New York, Boston, Chicago, Denver and San Francisco and rents for all headquarters were estimated at $45,643

For publicity, $1,346,500, was appropriated and for miscellaneous objects, such as bureaus of clubs, shipping departments and distribution, freight, express, all traveling and other expenses incident to raising of money, $680,920 was set aside.

"It is my opinion that about this amount will be necesary for the national committee to spend" said Mr Hays There may be expenses arising of course, that we cannot now anticipate, but this is approximately the amount that we believe necessary.

Mr Hays has submitted to the committee a letter from George T Carroll as "president of the New Jersey Association of Liquor Interests" He read from it sentences soliciting funds to carry on Cox propaganda with the ultimate object of obtaining an amendment to the Volstead act to permit sale of light wines and beers The letter called Governor Cox a "pronounced wet" disappointment," the president said, in his letter to the commission, "I am sure that the spirit with which you have acted will receive the commendation of the great bulk of the American people"

Would Modify Order

WASHINGTON, Aug 30—Ohio and Michigan should have an equal show with Canada in the distribution of coal, C. A Albright of the Cleveland Chamber of Commerce, told the interstate commerce commission today, supporting the petition of Cleveland and Akron for a modification of the northwest emergency coal order.

The Cleveland and Akron chambers asked that some of the coal shipped to the northwest under the order be diverted for the use of their cities.

Mr Albright said Cleveland would need approximately 1,500,000 tons for the year beginning May 1, but added that the city did not avoid a coal shortage this winter even with maximum distribution. It could be shown, he said, that Canada does not face a shortage and argued that the dominion should not have 100 per ent coal supply and all the shortage fall on Michigan and Ohio.

Albright said that Cleveland had not taken up the question of lightless nights, a coal rationing to conserve coal, but declared the city was ready to take every possible step to meet the situation.

W E Young represented the Akron chamber in presenting a similar argument for modification of the emergency order.

$250,000,000 TO BE SPENT ON HIGHWAYS IN U. S. THIS YEAR

Washington, Aug 30—Combined federal and state expenditures for road building may reach a total of $250,000,000 during the current fiscal year, according to Thomas H MacDonald, chief of the bureau of public roads, department of agriculture

The last instalment of federal aid funds totalling $100,000,000 because available last July 1. Three quarters of this apportionment was derived from the 1919 appropriation in 1916.

"If the states continue to pay more than fifty per cent of the cost as they have in the past," Mr MacDonald said, "it will be necessary to pan for construction at the rate of at east $100,000,000 and probaby more, each year"

State highway departments shoud know at east a year in advance what funds are to be available in order that plans may be made for construction at rate of at least $100,000,000 and probably more, each year."

State highway departments should know at least a year in advance what funds are to be available in order that plans may be made for future construction, Mr. MacDonald said "Unless further federal action is taken in the coming year" he added, "the states will be left in doubt as to the future policy of the government and the amount of money they must be prepared to spend Such a contingency would involve a serious setback to the progress of road construction and should be avoided by early congressional action"

Wealthy Stockman Dies

CANTON, Aug 30—Edward J Meyer, 62, wealthy stockman and prominent in Democratic politics in this section of the state, died suddenly yesterday at his home here He was twice nominated for congress in the sixteenth district but was defeated

BENTON HARBOR, Mich, Aug 30—Because of a fear of growing stale, Billy Miske, challenger for the world's heavyweight title, planned today to drop all work with the gloves for a day at least and perhaps longer.

Don't Stop It— Just Lift the Top

You know how it is—many times you have found an extra piece or so that you wanted to put into that particular wash.

With most electric washers, however, to add that extra piece it would be necessary to stop the motor—and the machine—then to lift the heavy top—put in the extra pieces—fasten the top down again—start the motor —all before you could continue with the washing. Not so with

THE LAUNDRY QUEEN Electric Washer

For the dolly mechanism, working through its telescoping post, is attached to the cover itself ,and all you need to do is to lift up the top without stopping the motor or machine at all.

This makes it very convenient when you have a lot of articles in various states of soil. With the Laundry Queen you can put in first those that are most soiled, then the next dirtiest and so on—giving to each lot the amount of washing it requires and yet being able to take the whole lot out and wring them into the rinsing water at the same time.

The Laundry Queen has many ways of getting rid of the drudgery of washing. Will you let it serve you?

HAD A TERRIBLE BURNING FEELING IN HIS STOMACH

Declares it felt like red-hot coals were in there and he would belch up hot, sour water. The great root and herb remedy, Dreco stopped his troubles

"This Dreco has certainly put a stop to a very annoying trouble, for me," said Mr. William Hunter, who lives at 301 N. Front St. Hamilton, Ohio.

"My stomach was shot to pieces, as the saying goes, everything I ate went against me and instead of giving me strength, it remained in my stomach, undigested, fermented and it seemed like I was burning up. I'd belch up hot, sour water that made my throat feel raw, I couldn't enjoy a single meal, no matter how careful I was.

"My kidneys got out of order and my backached terribly at times. I became quite nervous and lost a lot of sleep but I'm a happy man today for Dreco has knocked out all these troubles and put my stomach back like it used to be. I'm eating things now that I denied myself for a long time Dreco has also strengthened my kidneys and overcome the constipation. I've told lots of folks about Dreco and they are taking it on my say-so."

All druggists now sell Dreco and it is especially introduced in Elyria by Eberts Drug Store.

A LITTLE SLICE O' LIFE.

We know one man
Who doesn't want
To live in the city.
He owns a little farm
Up in Connecticut
And it has been in his
Family for generations.
It is not a particularly Generous bit of ground
And the farmer has to toil
For every nickel he gets,
And he has been used to this
Sort of hard work always.
His hands are calloused
And his whiskers are tangled
And he seldom has both sides
Of his suspenders working
For him at the same time

Consequently, he has acquired
A sort of gee hawed gait
And one gains the impression
That one of his shoulders
Is higher than the other
Because he hitches along.
The other day a farm hand
Was left a million dollars
And all the papers told
How he would stick to his job,
And we asked our friend Luke
What he would do if he had
A million left him suddenly
And he said. "Well, I would
Buy a new pair of galluses,
Shoot that dam mule, buy a
Good horse to plow with,
And take it easy the rest
Of my life"

DEAN G. W. FISKE PREDICTS BIG YEAR FOR UNITED CHURCH

OBERLIN, Aug. 30—A year of embarkation upon a new field for the new United church was predicted in the pulpit yesterday morning by Dean G W. Fiske of the Oberlin Graduate School of Theology faculty.

Church schools, meeting on wek days and instructing the public in various matters of religious education, efforts to make Oberlin college educaton thoroughly religious as well a secular, and the crying need of religion in every day business life were emphasized in the address, given in the Second church, to the United congregation which has been formed from the First and Second Congregational parishes.

"The United Church has about one chance to succeed and three to fail," said Dean Fiske in opening his address. "In nine cases out of ten where two churches have united, the result has been that after a decade the membership has shrunk to only the size of one of the original churches before the union We can only succeed in our own union here by persistent and hard effort, but we must succeed, for the eyes of the whole country are upon us

I quote Roger W Babson, the statistician," continued Dr Fiske, "as saying that in business life the vital thing is religion The value of securities depends wholly on the ethics of the clerks, the brokers and others by whom they are produced and sold The nation is passing through its most prosperous period in history, but during it we have all but forgotten our religion Many practical business men are predicting a panic, and if a panic should come it would be directly due to our religious lapse

The public schools of New York City have asked the churches to act with them in forming church schools to meet every Wednesday afternoon to instruct the children in religious education New York churches are working night and day to be ready for these classes

The establishemnt of such classes by the United Congregational Church of Oberlin is a definite step that I favor Definite classes and grades, with standard religious text books and a system comparable to that of our public schools, should be established College students and adults as well as the children should be provided with classes In this way the future of our nation will be religiously provided for in some part at least

"We have here at Oberlin a college with standards second to none in the world We send out our students to be leaders in their communities, and we must not send them wanting in religious education It is possible to criticize the college courses as being secular instead of religious and we must make the educational facilities here as religious as posible"
